

PUBLIC LEDGER

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1907.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1908.

MAYSVILLE, KY., TUESDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1905.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

THE LEDGER delights in obliging its friends. It prints "Help Wanted," "Situations Wanted," "Lost" and "Found" notices free of charge; and as it costs you nothing for such service, don't you think it is as little as you can do to write the copy and either bring or send it to the office?

If you have an item of news, please call up The Ledger, Telephone 53, and let us have it.

Have a look at Ray's Xmas pipes.

Last Christmas was warm and rainy.

Maysville Souvenir China at Schatzmann's.

See Gerbrich about Piano for Christmas.

Well, what is your candid opinion of our streets?

An immense line of Sterling Novelties, all new, at Clooney's.

Hog butchering is about finished in the county.

Women's splendid quality, last season's $12 1/2 to $20 suits, $5 at Hunt's.

If you want to enjoy yourself, attend the dance at Neptune Hall this week. Admission 10 cents.

The Fair Company wants bids and samples on roofing by Saturday, December 23d, at Klipp & Brown's.

The Kentucky State Prison Commission, in its annual report, recommends separate cell-houses for prisoners suffering from consumption.

Entirely new detachable handle Umbrellas for ladies and gentlemen at reduced prices. Don't want to carry them over holidays. P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

Rev. Father DeBruyn, who is ill at the residence of Rev. Father Jones in this city, is improving. A trained nurse from Cincinnati arrived yesterday to attend him.

Mrs. Alice Cooper has filed suit in the Mason Circuit Court for divorce from her husband, Jesse Allen Cooper. They were married in this county in 1881. She charges cruelty.

See our new line of Scarf and Stick Pins, Diamonds, Signets and Pearls; Diamond Rings set in platinum, something new; Ladies' and Gent's Watches, Watches for boys and girls, Cut Buttons, Crosses, Neck Chains, Studs, Charms and Lockets.

P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

The charming home of Mr. and Mrs. Shanklin of near Helena will be the scene of a brilliant affair on the evening after Christmas. The occasion will be a dance given in honor of Miss Ellen Shanklin and Mr. Preston Parker, who have been away attending school. Mr. and Mrs. Shanklin's home is one of the most beautiful in the county and the dance will be in keeping with the surroundings.

The largest stock of Cut Glass and Sterling Silver in this city. Every imaginable shape and purpose. Sterling Silver Spoons, Forks, Knives, etc. Toilet and Manicure Pieces, Carving Sets in Sterling Silver Handles, Buck Horn Handles in large and small sets, children's sets of Knife, Fork and Spoon in sterling and plated. P. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

John Spencer, colored, who was arrested Saturday night by Policemen Ryan and Wallace, for creating a disturbance in Front street and flourishing a revolver, was tried in Judge John L. Whitaker's Court yesterday. Before passing judgment the Court employed Dr. Browning to make a diagnosis as to the man's sanity, and upon the physician reporting that his mental faculties were sound, the Court assessed a fine of $100 and thirty days in jail.

CHRISTMAS DINNER

Meeting of Ladies—More Donations Needed—Act Promptly

The ladies in charge of Maysville's Dinner to the Poor met last afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles D. Pearce, to further arrange for this praiseworthy affair.

Reports sent in by those delegated to secure the names, indicate that from 250 to 300 children will be fed; and to do this the ladies solicit additional donations of turkeys, chickens, roast beef, beans, pickles, candies, oranges and nuts.

Anyone who will kindly volunteer to cook fowl or beef on Saturday will please report to Mrs. Larry Langefels.

Messrs. L. H. Young & Co. have generously tendered the use of all china that may be needed for the tables.

Ladies who will lend their assistance in serving the dinner are requested to meet at the room, No. 45 West Second street, next Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. C. C. Hopper has been chosen Treasurer of the Committee, but cash subscriptions must be sent to THE LEDGER for acknowledgment. Do it now!

SUPREME COURT

Sets January 15th As Date For Hearing of Powers Case

The Supreme Court of the United States yesterday granted leave to the state of Kentucky to file a petition for a writ of mandamus in the case of Caleb Powers and made the rule returnable on January 15th.

The announcement was made at the time that a motion to dismiss the case or affirm the decision of the Kentucky Court of Appeals would be considered after the hearing on the mandamus proceedings.

The order of the Supreme Court will permit argument in the case and the understanding is that counsel for both sides will be heard.

The state asks the Supreme Court to direct the remanding of the entire case to the Kentucky State Courts, and the question of jurisdiction will be the only point for consideration.

The Court of Appeals decided that the ordinance establishing a license system of taxation in the city of Louisville is unconstitutional, and reversed the judgment of the Jefferson Circuit Court. The law under which the ordinance was passed, however, is not held to be unconstitutional. A new ordinance will have to be passed by the Louisville General Council before license taxes may be collected.
